

A FOOL AND $500.00

might soon part, but the wise persons who spend their money where a dollar buys a dollar's worth, and a chance on a new automobile will have no cause for regret.

NOT LATER THAN JULY 8, 1916

We are going to give away ABSOLUTELY FREE a Five-Passenger

AUTOMOBILE

With every dollar's worth of Merchandise sold for cash we will give a ticket good for one chance on the automobile. Deposit the ticket in the box in our store, save the coupon and have it present on the day of the drawing. Remember, you must be present at the drawing to win.

MAKE YOUR DOLLARS COUNT

ARCADIA MERCANTILE COMPANY

..Locals..

(From Monday's Daily.)

Miss Maude Cockran, of Punta Gorda, is spending a few days in town.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Smith, prominent people of Bunker, were pleasant Sunday visitors here yesterday.

Dr. H. A. Boyle, of Punta Gorda, is registered at the Arcadia House for a few days.

E. Cahow, a prominent contractor of Tampa, is registered at the DeSoto Hotel for a few days.

W. H. Baggett, of Nocatee, is spending today in Arcadia on business.

Harney Carlton, of Nocatee, is spending today in this city attending to business.

George W. Lowe, well known farmer of Buchanan, is doing jury duty in town this week.

J. S. Gault, of Punta Gorda, is transacting business in this city today.

Mrs. M. L. Williams left Saturday for Fort Ogden, where she will spend this week visiting friends and relatives.

Jim Green and Clarence Carlton motored out to Pine Level yesterday, where they attended the children's day exercises of the Pine Level church.

W. W. Alderman, a one-time citizen of this city, but who now lives in Fort Myers, spent yesterday here visiting old friends.

Mrs. H. Grosvenor and Mrs. Arcadia S. Murdock are prominent Murdock matrons who were shopping in Arcadia Saturday. While here they were registered at the Arcadia House.

John Parker, after spending the week-end in Arcadia with his family, left this morning for Kensey where he is spending some time on business.

Leonard Hart, a pupil of the teachers' training department of the DeSoto County High School, spent yesterday in Zolfo with relatives.

Luby Mills spent Saturday in Punta Gorda attending to business and pleasure in that city, returning here Saturday afternoon.

Miss Ella M. Polk returned this morning from Punta Gorda, where she went Saturday morning to visit Mrs. Sadie B. Farrington.

Thad Carlton, well known deputy sheriff of the county, made an official business trip to Placida yesterday.

Wilbur Whitehurst, a young attorney of Wauchula, arrived in Arcadia this morning, and is spending today here attending to legal matters at the court house.

Attorney H. J. Speace, of Punta Gorda, arrived in Arcadia this morning and will remain here for several days on business at the court house.

Miss Moline Washington left this morning for Louisville, Ky., where she will remain for several months while visiting relatives.

Miss Sallie Ivey spent yesterday in Fort Ogden visiting relatives and attending the unveiling services held in that town yesterday.

George S. Williams, of Wauchula, is spending a few days here attending to business matters. He is stopping at the DeSoto Hotel.

H. G. Chapman, of Plant City, arrived in this city last night and is registered at the DeSoto Hotel for a few days.

Kingsmore Johnson is a prominent citizen of the Deep Water City who spent yesterday in this city on a pleasure trip.

J. C. Youngblood, Miss M. Youngblood, of Dalthan, Ala., and Miss M. Coker, of Gardner, were pleasant visitors to this city Saturday for a few hours.

Judge R. E. Brown, of this city, returned yesterday morning from Fort Myers, where he spent Saturday on business.

S. Silverman, J. E. Henderson and C. E. Bortz, all of Wauchula, motored down to this city yesterday, where they spent the day visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Skipper, Cassie Prescott and Marion North are prominent people of Zolfo, who were registered at the Arcadia House for yesterday's dinner.

Miss Nellie Brown, a popular young lady of this city, went up to Bartow yesterday, where she was joined by a party of merry picnicers of Tampa. She returned last night.

Leo Strubling, a prominent citizen of Adrian, is spending today in town attending the special meeting of the board of public instruction, before which he has business.

J. W. Bowen and family spent yesterday in Fort Ogden visiting relatives and friends and attending the unveiling services. They returned to Arcadia yesterday afternoon.

J. P. Donnelly arrived in Arcadia yesterday morning from Tampa, and will spend the next few days here visiting his brother-in-law, Durwood Simmons, at Owens.

Col. John H. Treadwell left yesterday morning for Hot Springs, Ark., where he will spend the next three weeks enjoying the hot baths of that city.

Pierce Tucker, of Bartow, arrived in Arcadia yesterday from his home and spent the day visiting Glenn Apple, returning to his home this morning.

Col. Lee M. Hammell, a prominent lawyer of Wauchula, spent the whole of Saturday in this city attending to business at the court house. He left on the afternoon train for his home.

Miss Sydney Browning, of Punta Gorda, arrived in Arcadia Saturday afternoon from her home, and is spending a few days here on a short business trip.

Mrs. R. B. Armstrong returned Saturday afternoon from Fort Myers, where she had been since Tuesday visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Gonzales.

Congressman S. M. Sparkman passed through this city today on his way to Fort Myers. He said that he will return to Arcadia tomorrow morning and will spend the day here.

Miss Elizabeth Gray, who has taught Latin in the DeSoto county high school for the past two terms, left Saturday afternoon for her home in Richmond, Va., where she will spend the summer with relatives.

Miss Emma McBride and Mrs. Gresham were among well known Arcadians attending the unveiling ceremonies at Fort Ogden yesterday, returning to this city last night.

Col. J. H. Hancock arrived in Arcadia this morning from his home in Punta Gorda, and will remain here for several days while attending to legal matters at the court house.

C. H. Peebles received a telegram last night notifying him of the death of his father, and he left this morning for Cincinnati to attend the funeral. The News joins with his many Arcadia friends in offering sympathy.

Rev. F. A. Shore, well known pastor of the St. Edmund's Episcopal church, left this morning for Boca Grande, where he will spend today attending to business matters, and will return here tomorrow morning.

J. P. Hayden and Dave Richardson, well known citizens of Bradenton, motored over to Arcadia Saturday and spent that day here visiting the former's parents. They left for their home yesterday.

Judge W. D. Bell and family spent yesterday in Fort Ogden, where Judge Bell made an address at the unveiling of the monument over the grave of Mrs. Maggie Downing. They returned to this city yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. E. M. Hays and children, Misses Dora and Daisy Ayres, Reuell Platt and A. Stapleton made up a party of well known Arcadians which went down to Boca Grande yesterday for a day's outing, returning here last night.

H. S. Hampton, one of the leading attorneys of Tampa, after spending Friday and Saturday in this city attending to legal matters at the court house, left Saturday afternoon for his home. While here he was registered at the Arcadia House.

Miss Betty Lou McKenzie, one of the popular teachers who has been teaching school in this city for the past term, left this morning for her home in Kissimmee, where she will spend the summer with relatives and friends.

Tell The News

Your neighbor may not realize how much benefit is derived from maintaining an account with a strong, up-to-date Banking Institution.

We want our satisfied customers to tell their friends about our efficient service and the 5 per cent. we pay on savings.

Co-operate with us to make your Bank grow.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK of ARCADIA
ARCADIA, FLORIDA

DO YOU WANT TO BUILD OR REPAIR YOUR HOME?

Now is the time to get close figures.

LENCE CONSTRUCTION CO.

Phone 227

D. L. LENCE, Manager

An Advertisement Placed in the News Pays

Fits-U Eyeglasses
Glasses
Fitted By
Graduate Optician
J. M. MORQUE, OPT. D.